From the Pastor's Pen

Dear Parishioners of St. Joseph

Results of Our 36th Annual Parish Picnic

We sold a record breaking 1790 meals!

This week you will see the financial report from our annual parish picnic. This year, by all accounts we had one of our most successful picnics in our parish history. We had a tremendous amount of stewards who faithfully volunteered to work at our picnic this year. Thank you to everyone who made this year's picnic such a tremendous success. We raised $30,833.80!!!

A Note of Thanks from Our Recent Guest Missionary Priest

Dear Fr. Valleroy,

Sincerely, from the depth of my heart, I want to thank you for the opportunity you have given the Society of African Missions to come and do mission appeal in your lovely Parish of St. Joseph at Farmington.

With the warm welcome of Fr. Dyer and the kindness of the parishioners, I did feel at home and I must say that it is due to your good heartedness and I say thank you for that. I would like you dear father, to please extend my gratitude to Fr. Dyer and the parishioners for their openness and generosity. To the risk of repeating myself, I really want to say thank you for welcoming me in your parish.

Hoping to read from you dear Fr. Valleroy, I wish you the very best in your ministry and I want to assure you and your community of my prayers.

Yours in Christ, With love and blessings

Ghislain MAÏ, SMA

A New Money Counter Joins Us

My sincere thanks goes to Arlene McNamara who has been a faithful money counter for the past several years. Our money counters are appointed by the pastor and approved by our finance board. We have three different teams of counters that faithfully meet on their designated Monday. We owe a tremendous thank you to them for their time and talent. I would like to welcome Kathy Neiner who will join team two, replacing Arlene who is leaving due to health reasons.

Vacation Bible School

An Awesome Experience for our Children!

From all accounts, it looked like our youngest parishioners truly enjoyed a week at our annual Vacation Bible School. This year the children learned all about the parables told by Jesus.

Our sincere thanks to Dawn Fuemmeler for the tremendous amount of dedication and hours of labor that she devoted once again to this year's Vacation Bible School. Dawn has led our Vacation Bible School for the past 18 years and has done a tremendous job each year. Our thanks to all of the volunteers who helped to shepherd our children during these five days of discovery that not only gave the children knowledge of God's Word, but also the opportunity to respond to His truth by living out their Catholic faith.

Search Committee

Our search committee for our new Marketing and Development Coordinator / Administrative Assistant for our school has been prayerfully selected. My thanks to Doak Holloway, past pastoral council president with two children in school; Jane Ramos, our current marketing volunteer with three children in school; and Susie Rohrer, our current principal will be interviewing several candidates this week. If you missed the job description, please see last week's bulletin or visit our web site www.stjosephfarmington.com. Application deadline was Friday, July 23rd.

Another Mystery Added to Our Yesterday's Kids Mystery Evening Out

The bus is filling up. . .call to reserve your spot soon! A special mystery employee is joining us on this trip. Can you guess who? We have a wonderful evening out planned for our Yesterday's Kids (those 55 and older). It's a "mystery" exactly what we will be doing, but you can count on a delicious dinner and some great entertainment for the evening. Please join us on Friday, August, 13th, see page 14 for more details and registration.

And Finally. . .

A special thanks to George and Sandi Kracke who recently donated numerous books to our library.

"Always remember that as long as we keep the Eucharist the center of our lives, everything else will fall in place...of that I am confident"!!!

Blessings of Peace... Fr. Rickey

Thank You For Your Faithfulness!!!

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” Luke 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask Him, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that in our culture we often confuse what we really need with what we simply want. We need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good steward only asks God for what he needs.

Together we pray for those who are sick. (Parishioners names are in bold.)

Please pray for: Lisa Kissel, Scott Kimberland, Laura Williams, Dorothy Mount, Nancy Bowman, Ashley Rhodes, Katie Otto, Debra Gurtright, Charlotte Morris, Kathy Krechnyak, Rhonda LaPierre, Ruth Basler, Paul Hahn, Sharon Hahn, Bruce Hahn, Thelma Blake, Ava Hutson, Pete Dastoor, Janice Douglas, Beverly Berberich, William Wiles, Sharon Gonzalez, Tom King, Nan Link, Verna Lake, Dick Schoendienst, Pete Firestine, Christine Booth, Lois Rhodes, Steve Herrell, Betty Todtenhopt, Paul Lang, Leanne Thele, Dale Resinger, Jessie Meyer, William Mund, Virginia Cramp, Mary Ann Faeth, Jack Sebastian, Mazie Roegner, Andy Hellrung, Tony Boyer, Mary Ward, Theresa Wade, Laura Leachman, Mary Lou Lodholz.

If you need to add someone to the prayer list, please contact Pat Boatright at 756-4169.

Be Careful What You Ask For

Jesus talks about praying for whatever we need with faith and confidence, but he ends with the words, "how much more with the Father...give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" (Lk 1:13) Is he saying there are limits to what you can ask for?

There is a saying: "Be careful what you ask for." Just because you want something doesn't mean it will be good for you. Remember the Indiana Jones movies, where the artifact that the bad guys were seeking usually turned out to be lethally dangerous. But if you have enough faith to pray for something, you probably would not pray for anything evil. So what is Jesus really saying? He is giving us two lessons about prayer.

First, he assures us that God does hear our prayers and answers them. Many people take the idea of "ask and you shall receive" so literally, that they expect God to do their bidding no matter what they want. Prayers, however, are not a magical ritual that somehow forces God to do our will. God is free to do what is best for us, free to answer some prayers with a "No" when what we seek is against God's will. So maybe our first prayer would be to ask God to show us what we really need.

That leads us to the second lesson: Prayer changes us, not God. If we truly pray for something as Jesus prayed, we would ask for what we need, adding "not as I will, but as you will." (Mt 26:39) If we pray humbly and are open to what God wills for us, we will begin to see that what we need the most is God himself. It's not easy to change our minds about what we want or need. To change our desires from selfish to holy takes a lot of power, the Power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus was raised from the dead by that power and we will too. (Rom 8:11) Mary conceived by the power of the Spirit. (Mt 1:18) The bread and wine in the Eucharist become the Body and blood of Christ by the Spirit's power. So when Jesus promises that the Father will give the Spirit to us for asking, the Spirit is both the source of and the answer to our prayers. Let us ask the Spirit to empower us to desire and pray for what we really need.

A Letter from Our Archbishop

July 23, 2010

Dear Friends in Christ,

Since 1956, the Latin America Apostolate of the Archdiocese of St. Louis has enabled us as an Archdiocese to fulfill the missionary mandate of Our Lord: "Go into the whole world, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." (Mt 28: 19). The shortage of native Bolivian Priests and the request by the Papal Nuncio to Bolivia made to Archbishop Ritter was the reason our St. Louis Missionary Priests were sent to serve there. In 2010, two native Bolivian Priests were ordained for service of the Archdiocese of La Paz. Both had spent part of their seminary formation in apostolic work in Maria Reina Parish in La Paz, where most of our St. Louis Priest Missionaries serve in Bolivia.

Besides the shortage of native clergy, other challenges in Bolivia include: great poverty, unemployment, diseases and malnutrition. These difficulties persist for the people of Bolivia even today. Our Missionaries preach the Gospel, form catechists, celebrate the sacraments, and help form the people as missionary disciples of the Lord. A health clinic in Maria Reina Parish in La Paz helps meet the needs of the poor who seek medical care and food. This year our Missionary Priests at Maria Reina are trying to finish the construction of a chapel called Santa Barbara. While the parishioners are trying to raise the funds, the chapel cannot be completed without our financial support.

Our Missionary Priests also serve in a rural parish among the Aymara people in Calamarca, 45 miles outside La Paz, where there are 30 villages, in addition to the main church in Calamarca. Were it not for our Priest Missionaries, Masses would not be available in these 30 villages, nor in the main Church.

Bishop Casey also receives our support from the Latin America Apostolate for his ministry as the Vicar Apostolic for the Vicariate of the Pando in Northern Bolivia. There are 160,000 Catholics in his pastoral care.

As the Servant of God, Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen once wrote: "Some people give to the missions by going; others go to the missions by giving. Without both, there is no mission." Please be generous in the collection for the Latin America Apostolate on August 1, 2010 and pray for our Missionaries. Missionaries can only do what we make possible through our prayers and donations.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson
Archbishop of St. Louis

2010 Vacation

Sonquest Rainforest VBS was a success. We had 65-70 children attend. Thank you to the 25-30 adult and youth volunteers that helped make the week such a success. Thank you also to the MAC Theatre Department for letting us borrow the vines that turned our parish center into a rainforest, to Butterfield Florist for the use of the fern decorations, to Little Caesar's for the pizza and McDonald's for cups and drinks.

Until next year,

Dawn Fuemmeler

VBS director

CDs with the music from Vacation Bible School are available in the parish office for $3.00 on a first come first serve basis. If interested please contact the parish office.

Bible School

On behalf of our parish family, it was a joy for our pastor, Fr. Rickey, to present Dawn a beautiful statue of the Holy Family as a gift of gratitude for all of her hard work and dedication to VBS each year.
